Dedication

TO OUR PARENTS

For all the loving things you've done,

To help along life's way,

For sacrifices you have made,

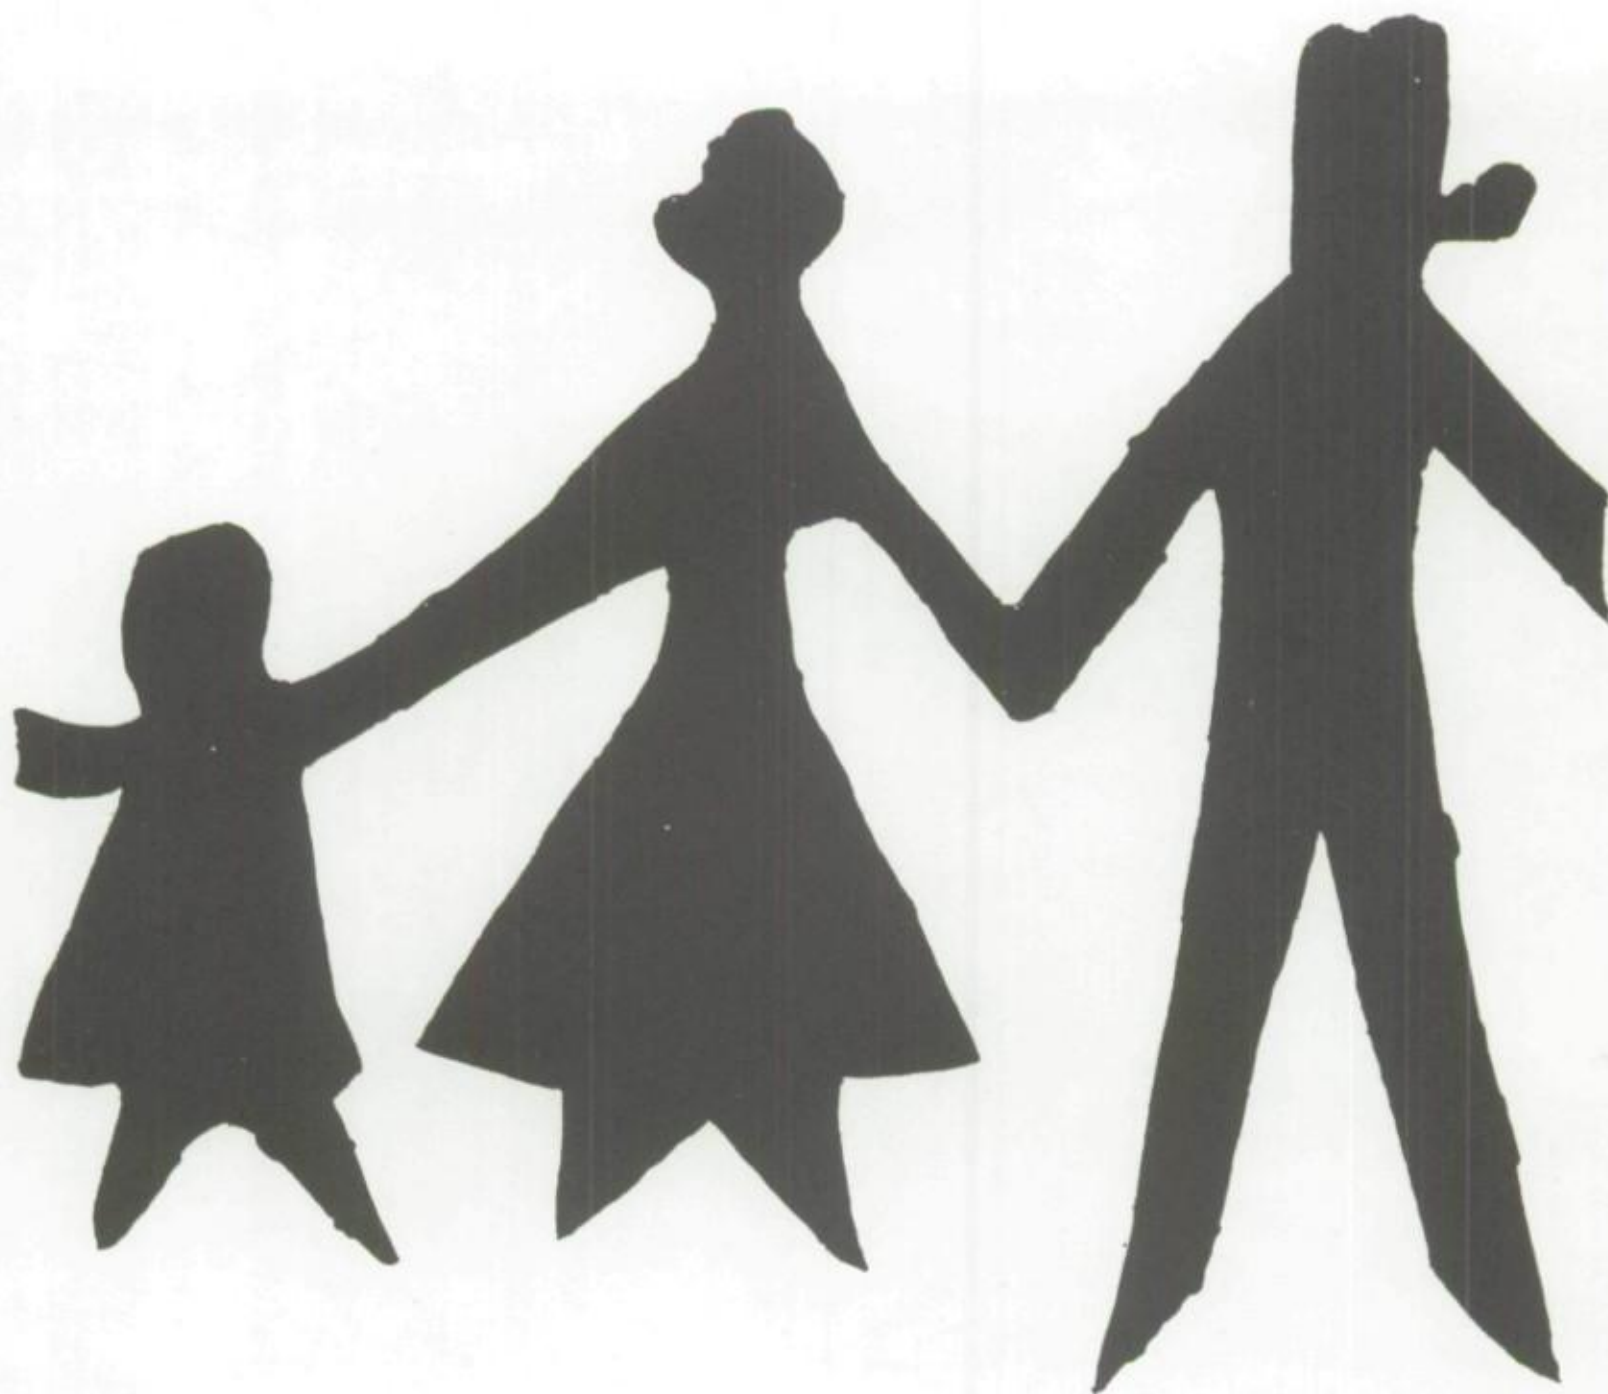

For love bestowed each day,

For loving counsel, wise advice,

For faith and trust, and prayer,

We dedicate this book to you,

To show how much we care.

Class Poem

We the Seniors of '62'
Would like to share our ideals with you.
Nineteen verses all in a row,
Each individual's future to show.

Pat the first one on our list
On to school we all insist.
With the boys she is quite shy
But she'll get one by and by.

Then there's Elvin, a nice young lad
That some young girl wishes she had.
With his 58 ford he goes quite fast
But some sneaky cop will get him at last.

Corrinne with her giggles, interruptin' class
We all stop and listen as they overpass.
An Artist she'll be, An artist she is
And if she isn't we'll think, "Gee Whiz!"

Another Pat in our class
Is really quite a sewing lass.
She studies hard to get an A
A Home Economist she'll be someday.

Janet who's planning a Career
An Airline Hostess, We have no fear.
But in the meantime does her best
And with much effort passes each test.

Lois, the President of the "Tiger Peps"
Through each task courageously steps.
To be a nurse is her ambition
But we're sure she'll be an electrician.

Football Co-Captain of the year was Wayne
Out on the field and ready to train.
He's President of the U-Club boys
When he gets up; No one makes a noise.

Next in line there's Shirley G.
No one knows what she'll be.
With her studies she does quite well
And with Adolph really rings the bell.

Glenda a singer, a drummer, Our Queen
Is always smiling with a gleam.
In classes she's really a whiz
And usually passes every quiz.

Next in line is Marlowe Knorr
He too is quite a riot.
When he eats he asks for more
But he doesn't need to diet.

Terry another football player
Is actually quite a clown.
But maybe someday he'll be a mayor
And be the head of the town.

Linda Obermier, a likeable lass
Is always tired during class.
She studies hard to make that grade
But we think she might have it made.

Then there's Janice, better known as Rieger,
She's often willing, sometimes eager.
Polkas are her favorite step
And with Bohemians she's quite 'hep.'

Bev, the brain of the flock,
Keeps her secret under lock;
All the boys she gives a whirl
But actually she's just another girl.

Mary, a likeable lass as a rule
Helps lead the girls ahead.
We don't believe she'll go on to school
But probably get married instead.

Myron used to be quite shy
But he has changed with the years gone by.
He studies hard and acts his best
But way down in he's just like the rest.

Doug our famous homecoming King
Made that scoreboard really ring.
With that pig-skin in his hand
Helped lead the boys through-out the land.

Julie never has much to say
But she'll surprise us all someday.
With her intelligence she'll go far
But only the brains of a few to mar.

Gloria the majorette of the band
Keeps them marching up and down the stand.
With the volley ball she's great
And with Vernon she's "Top Rate."

As we step from this hall of learning
And into the field and art of earning.
This fateful scene we all regret
But we'll find something better yet.

Class of '62 History

Our team came up to bat on Aug. 29, 1958 with twenty-one players present.

Pitcher for the first inning was Mary Scherer, first baseman was Glenda Gierhan, to keep the record straight. Second baseman, Lois Fehlhafer, kept us financially straight - we think. Third baseman, Beverly Sampson was also assistant pitcher and took over when Mary was gone. Pat Deremer played shortstop, and took our class problems to the student council.

During the first inning we were all officially initiated into the game by the Sophomores on Sept. 24, 1958. That night we were given a party by the Sophomores.

On Oct. 7, we hit a "fair ball" by giving the Sophomores a return party.

Kay Schiefelbein, one of our players fouled out and was removed from the game.

Roger Grant, a new player, entered the game in the first inning. The first inning came to an end with one hit, one run, and many errors.

The second inning was opened Aug. 31, 1959, with Glenda Gierhan pitching, first baseman was Mary Scherer, second baseman, Janice Rieger. Third baseman was Beverly Sampson and shortstop was Nancy Ludwig.

In the second inning we were given the honor of initiating a new team into the game which we did on Sept. 23, 1959.

The second inning came to an end with a pop-up which was caught by our team.

The third inning was getting to the interesting point of the game. For this particular inning we chose Wayne Fehlhafer, pitcher, Beverly Sampson, first baseman, Nancy Ludwig, second baseman, Lois Fehlhafer, third baseman, and Glenda Gierhan and Douglas Volzke for short stops. Janet Elrod reported the plays made by the team to the paper staff.

Having this all completed, the game was underway.

The first of the three major plays came in October when we chose our teams' rings. We were all proud of this one.

During this inning we had another player, Roger Grant, foul out.

On April 3 and 4 we presented the play, "The Very Opposite Sex." This was a big success.

The biggest play of this inning, and with the most effort came on May 8, 1961 when we gave the Jr.-Sr. Banquet honoring the Seniors.

Between innings we had a player who finished the game early, her name was Nancy Ludwig.

Our final inning started on Sept. 1, 1961. Pitching for this inning was Marlowe Knorr, first baseman was Glenda Gierhan; second baseman, Julie Wiemer; third baseman, Terry Lewis. Shortstops for this final inning were Lois Fehlhafer, Wayne Fehlhafer, and Beverly Sampson.

On October 10, 1961, we made a quick pass to outfield (Lincoln) to have our Senior pictures taken.

During this inning we presented the Senior Class Play, "Spring Night."

In the spring of '62 the Junior Class honored us at the Jr.-Sr. Banquet.

This inning was quickly drawing to an end when on May 20, 1962, the Baccalaureate sermon was held.

A home run, which won the game for us, was hit on May 21, 1962 at the Graduation exercises.

The final score of this game was---SUCCESS!!

On October 13, homecoming high-lighted the 1961 Football Season with the reigning king and queen, Vernon Wiemer and Sue Imig crowning the new royalty. Names of the candidates were not revealed until that evening. Enthusiasm was high as the band paraded before the fans. The heart was formed, the float towed into the center, and the queen candidates, Beverly Sampson, Mary Scherer, Lois Fehlhafer, and Glenda Gierhan and the king candidates, Wayne Fehlhafer, Douglas Volzke, and Terry Lewis marched to the float.
